

Information for Teachers

“The STEM Ambassadors Programme will enable you to make links from the curriculum to how STEM is practiced in the world of work, illuminating applications across a vast range of careers”.

STEM Ambassadors are an invaluable and free resource for teachers and schools. Not only are they free, they are CRB checked and have received a basic induction about how to approach the classroom, safeguarding student’s welfare.

<http://www.adobe.com/go/getflashplayer>

What are the benefits to my students?

Open all sections

The benefits to your students include:

- Better motivation, more confidence and enthusiasm regarding STEM subjects
- Opportunities to improve key skills and increase understanding in STEM
- A better understanding of the opportunities that a career in STEM can offer

Discover more of the benefits to your students (</schools/STEM-centre/information-for-teachers/The-Benefits-of-the-STEM-Ambassador-Programme.aspx>).

What activities can STEM Ambassadors do?

The types of activities that Ambassadors typically support include, assisting with STEM clubs, providing an insight into career opportunities, facilitating workplace visits and/or working as mentors, as well as attending careers fairs and judging competitions.

Discover more about the types of activities (</schools/STEM-centre/information-for-teachers/What-do-STEM-Ambassadors-do.aspx>). STEM Ambassadors can do.

Who are STEM Ambassadors?

STEM Ambassadors are people from STEM backgrounds, usually professionals and experts in their field, who volunteer as inspiring role models for young people.

Discover more about STEM Ambassadors (</schools/STEM-centre/information-for-teachers/Who-are-STEM-Ambassadors.aspx>).