This summer, Mr Bloom is hitting the road. On Saturday 28th and Sunday 29th July he will bring his travelling village fête to Sandwell Country Park in West Bromwich. The tour is an opportunity for CBeebies fans and their families to get up close and personal with one of their favourite programmes. Those of you who have young children or grandchildren will know of this programme!

There will be marquees with activities for the children to take part in and one of the activities is a bike powered disco for the young 3-6 year old audience. They are seeking some enthusiastic volunteers to explain to the children in very simple terms how it is possible to generate power using a bike. The BBC are able to cover travel expenses and lunch will be provided.
