Research

Research in the Department is centred around the Accounting Research Group and the Accountability and Governance Research Cluster.

The Birmingham Business School Accounting Research Group \(/schools/business/departments/Accounting-Finance/research/accounting.aspx\) covers the mainstream research interests of the Department and also contributes towards commenting on the development of accounting and auditing standards.

Teaching

At undergraduate level the Department contributes to the long established Accounting and Finance BSc \(/undergraduate/courses/business/accounting-finance.aspx\) degree and a recently launched, innovative BSc Accountancy \(/undergraduate/courses/business/kpmg-school-leavers-programme-accounting-finance.aspx\) degree, partnering with KPMG and the ICAS.

At postgraduate level, the Department, working with the Department of Finance, provides one-year full-time programmes leading to:

- MSc International Accounting and Finance \(/postgraduate/courses/taught/business/international-acct-finance.aspx\)
- MSc Investments \(/postgraduate/courses/taught/business/investments.aspx\)
- MSc Financial Management \(/postgraduate/courses/taught/business/financial-management.aspx\)

Members of the Department also contribute to our executive MBA programmes \(/schools/business/mba/courses/index.aspx\), in Birmingham and overseas. The Department also provides research degrees leading to a PhD qualification on both full-time and part-time bases.
