

Hear Professor Kiran Trehan Discuss Driving Economic Growth

Posted on Friday 22nd March 2013

The Department of Management's Professor Kiran Trehan, Birmingham Business School expert in leadership and enterprise development, recently took part in the University's Birmingham Heroes (</research/heroes/index.aspx>) campaign.

Alongside other academics from across the University, Professor Trehan offered her views, which includes harnessing talent to sustain and grow businesses and that small and medium-sized enterprises are key for driving economic growth.
