

ESRC grant success for Birmingham

Posted on Friday 15th November 2013

We are delighted to announce that the University of Birmingham has risen to third in the UK with Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) grant success in terms of values of award according to the Times Higher statistics. This is a tremendous achievement and represents a rise of 6 places compared to last year's position of 9th place.

Full data - Times Higher Education released their November 2013 Grant Success Rate report \(http://www.timeshighereducation.co.uk/news/research-grant-success-rates-rise-with-demand-management/2008997.article\).