

News archive

Funding success: Chemistry at the Interface with Medicine \(/schools/chemistry/news/archive/funding-success-for-PSIBS.aspx\)

We are pleased to announce our new £7M Doctoral Training Programme "Physical Sciences for Health" sponsored by EPSRC, and involving 18 industrial and 5 public sector partners.

Chemistry Academics inspire Year 8 and 9 students at the Thinktank in Birmingham \(/schools/chemistry/news/archive/chematworkFeb13.aspx\)June 2011. Pikramenou manuscript featured in Image Challenge \(/schools/chemistry/news/archive/pre2013/pikramenou-image-challenge.aspx\)

The latest JACS manuscript by the Pikramenou group has been featured in the JACS website Image Challenge.

News archive - Selected items June 2010- February 2011 \(/schools/chemistry/news/archive/pre2013/archive-jun-10-february-11.aspx\)

School of Chemistry news archive June 2010 - February 2011

News archive - selected items pre March 2010 \(/schools/chemistry/news/archive/pre2013/archive-pre-march-10.aspx\)

School of Chemistry news archive June 2010 - February 2011

Displaying 1 to 5 of 5