We're very pleased to welcome two new members of academic staff to the Centre for English Language Studies.

Joe Bennett is a new full-time lecturer whose research interests are in discourse analysis and multimediality.

Lucy Cooker is a new teaching fellow, standing in for Nick Groom \(/staff/profiles/elal/groom-nicholas.aspx\) who's on study leave. Her research interests include language learner autonomy, self-access language learning, alternative assessment, materials development and language learner identities.
