The Shakespeare Institute

\(/schools/edacs/departments/shakespeare/index.aspx\) was very pleased to host Marilyn Halperin, Director of Communications and Outreach at the Chicago Shakespeare Theater, during her visit to Stratford-upon-Avon and Birmingham last week. Marilyn contributed to the Shakespeare and Creative Practice summer school whilst here and was also involved in discussions about the development of a Chicago-Stratford summer study programme.
