

Cathie Lacey

EdD Researcher

Current Status

Part time EdD

Research Topic

Construction of professional/personal identity for ESOL teachers; CPD and ITT

Research Summary

TBD

Research Interests

- Teacher identity
- Use of eportfolios and blogs with students
- Adult ESOL
- Teacher education
- Linguistic ethnography
- Observation of teaching
- Critical conversations

Research Supervisor

Professor Ann-Marie Bathmaker (</staff/profiles/education/bathmaker-ann-marie.aspx>)

Funding

Self-funding

Membership in Research and Professional Organisations

- NALDIC
- NATECLA
- Language Studies Student Group

Publications

Space, Resistance, and Identities: University-Based Teacher Educators Developing a Community of Practice, Margaret Herrington, Alex Kendall, Julie Hughes, Cathie Lacey, Rob Smith, Vanessa Dye, Rachel Baig, and Matt O'Leary. In Communities of Practice: Creating Learning Environments for Educators edited by Chris Kombe, Paul Hildreth Published by Information Age Pub Inc, 2008

Short article in RaPAL (Research and Practice in Adult Literacy - May 2007) Conversations with Margaret Herrington 'New Standards in Teaching Education – again'

Conference Papers and Presentations

June 2008 - University of Hertfordshire – Third International Blended Learning conference. With Julie Hughes and David Wise ' Beyond projects and piloting- embedding an eportfolio in a PGCE – an innovation too far?'

June 2007 - Becoming part of the ESOL blogging village, ISTE conference, Sterling

May 2006 - University of Wolverhampton, School of Education conference 'Using blogs with pre service ESOL teachers'