

Outstanding Scholar Award

Posted on Tuesday 6th December 2011

Sara Curran, an ESRC-funded researcher studying 'the impact of secondary mainstream/special school collaborations using music on inclusion for participating students and staff' has received the Head of College prize for outstanding scholar (School of Education) on the MA Social Research/Doctoral Training Programme for the academic year 2010-11. The Head of College awards five prizes, one for each school, and a prize for best dissertation.

Sara now has £100 to spend on doctorally-worthy things! Congratulations and best wishes.
