

New film from the Jubilee Centre for Character and Values highlights their research activities

Posted on Friday 31st January 2014

The Jubilee Centre for Character and Values has launched a new short film to highlight its many activities and success stories. The centre is a year old and recently held its second annual conference at Oriel College in Oxford.

The goal of the centre is to strengthen character and values in Britain in the context of family, school, community, university, profession, voluntary organisations and the wider employment scene in Britain.

More information about the centre may be found at: <http://www.jubileecentre.ac.uk> (<http://www.jubileecentre.ac.uk/>)
