

Urban morphology and conservation: research and practice workshop

Locations M.R.G. Conzen Collection (above the Lapworth Museum), Earth Sciences building, University of Birmingham

Date(s) Tuesday 13th September 2011 (10:45-16:30)

Contact Numbers are limited. Please contact Jeremy Whitehand (j.w.r.whitehand@bham.ac.uk <mailto:j.w.r.whitehand@bham.ac.uk>) if you would like to attend.

Download Add to Calendar \(/schools/gees/news/2011/urban-morphology-13092011.aspx?ical=true\)

The Urban Morphology Research Group (<http://www.gees2.bham.ac.uk/research/clusters/urbanmorphology/index.shtml>) are hosting a day conference sponsored by ISUF in conjunction with the UK/Ireland Planning Research Conference. Speakers will include:

- Graham Fairclough (English Heritage) 'Predecessors and neighbours: landscape and cities'
- Karl Kropf (Built Form Resource Ltd, UK) 'The pragmatics of urban morphology'
- Peter Larkham & Nick Morton (Birmingham City University) 'Mapping conservation areas: measuring aspects of character and drawing designation boundaries'
- Ivor Samuels (University of Birmingham) 'From description to prescription: the contribution that townscape and heritage surveys make to planning practice'

Refreshments will be served at 10.45am. and 3.45pm. Lunch will be in Staff House from 12.45-2.00pm.