

CREES Academic publishes paper on the EU with leading think tank

Posted on Tuesday 14th August 2012

Dr Tim Haughton (/staff/profiles/government-society/haughton-tim.aspx) (CREES) examined the views of four leading scholars of the European Union, providing an analysis of the current state of the European Union. He argues that central to the future of the European Union are questions of solidarity, unanimity and vulnerability. Moreover, he maintains that in some respects the EU can be compared to an SUV.

Read: An SUV on a Road to Nowhere? Solidarity, Unanimity and Vulnerability in the European Union \(PDF 371KB\) (<http://transatlantic.sais-jhu.edu/publications/articles/Tim%20Haughton%20An%20SUV%20on%20a%20Road%20to%20Nowhere%20Solidarity.pdf>)