

Professor Richard Cust on BBC Radio 4's Sunday Programme

Posted on Tuesday 29th January 2013

The anniversary of the execution of Charles I on 30 January 1649 prompted a lively debate on Radio 4's 'Sunday' about Charles's claims to be celebrated by the Church of England as a martyr. Richard Cust (/staff/profiles/history/cust-richard.aspx) contributed with an assessment of Charles's kingship and his role in the Church of England.

- Listen to the programme \(http://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/b01q7ggf/Sunday\_27\_01\_2013/?t=15m00s\) (available for the next seven days on BBC IPlayer)