

Distance learning study week

Posted on Tuesday 5th July 2011

The Year 1 distance learning students \(/schools/historycultures/departments/ironbridge/postgraduate/distance-learning.aspx\), deep inside the former Birds Custard Factory in Birmingham, experience the bright new world of heritage regeneration during their assessed study week to the West Midlands, an opportunity to socialise as well as explore and embed the academic theories studied during the year.
