

Resources

As cultural heritage is increasingly recognised as a broad subject area with a multiplicity of meanings and a multidisciplinary impact, the number of resources around it also expands.

These pages provide a number of useful links and documents that may be useful to students and researchers in the field of cultural heritage. The publications page also provides a valuable list of books and journals that deal with cultural heritage as well as links to purchase them.

If you would like your website or publication to be featured then please contact us (//schools/historycultures/departments/ironbridge/contact/index.aspx).