

LLM scholarships

For 2015 entry Birmingham Law School will be offering a range of scholarships to applicants for its taught LLM programmes.

- up to £5,000 for international students (Non EU)
- up to £2,000 for UK/EU students.

Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of academic merit and financial need. Applicants must already have applied for admission to the LLM degree.

Applying for a scholarship

Applicants are required to send a letter of motivation to Law-LLM@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:Law-LLM@bham.ac.uk?subject=LLM%20Scholarships>) addressing the twin requirements of academic merit and financial need. You must include your University ID number in your letter of motivation and should also include a scanned copy of your latest academic transcript.

The closing date for the receipt of Scholarship applications is Friday, 19 June 2015.

Successful applicants will be notified in July 2015. Scholarships are not payable directly to successful applicants but are set off against the University fee invoice for 2015-2016 and will be transferred once successful applicants have paid the balance owed by them to the University.

Scholarships from The University of Birmingham

Scholarships to cover fees and/or maintenance costs may be available. To discover whether you are eligible for any award across the University, and to start your funding application, please visit the University's Postgraduate Funding Database \(http://www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/fees/funding/FundingFilter.aspx\).

International students can often gain funding through overseas research scholarships, Commonwealth scholarships or their home government.
