- Jurisprudence (LLB)
- Property A: Land Law (LLB)

Postgraduate supervision

- Jurisprudence
- The application of other disciplines of study to the study of Law (Philosophy, Literary theory, Economics etc.)

Doctoral research

PhD title HOW THE PHILOSOPHY OF MARTIN HEIDEGGER CAN BE USED TO SOLVE THE GAP PROBLEM IN MICHAEL S. MOORE'S NATURAL LAW THEORY.

Research

His major research interest is in Jurisprudence, in particular the application of mainstream philosophy to issues in legal theory. His current research is on the perceived split between the Anglo-American and Continental traditions in relation to legal philosophy. He has specific expertise in the writings of Martin Heidegger and their application to legal philosophy.

Other activities

He is Head of Internationalisation for Birmingham Law School and Director of the Swedish Exchange Program. He is also a director of the LNAT \(/schools/law/courses/llb/inat.aspx\) consortium and its current Chairman.
