

The Centre for the Study of Hispanic Exile

The Centre for the Study of Hispanic Exile was created in 2007 to provide a focus for the research of of staff within Hispanic Studies at the University of Birmingham.

It provides a context for collaboration with other groups and centres in research institutions throughout the world.

- Research staff \(/schools/lcahm/departments/hispanic/research/exile/research-staff.aspx\)
- Projects \(/schools/lcahm/departments/hispanic/research/exile/projects.aspx\)
- Spanish Republican Exile Geographies conference \(/schools/lcahm/departments/hispanic/research/exile/geographies.aspx\), September 2008