

Student news in Art History, Film and Visual Studies

Posted on Wednesday 6th February 2013

Read about some of the things our students and alumni have been up to over on our official blog, The Golovine (<http://thegolovine.wordpress.com/>)!

French and History of Art Joint Honours student Holly Wain (<http://thegolovine.wordpress.com/2013/01/29/the-view-from-abroad-holly-wain-raves-about-medieval-poitiers-and-the-joys-of-being-a-year-abroad-student>) tells us about her first term in the medieval town of Poitiers.

The third years visit the Northern Renaissance (<http://thegolovine.wordpress.com/2013/02/01/a-private-view-of-hm-the-queens-northern-renaissance-jewels-at-buckingham-palace-maybe-not-but-a-good-exhibition-anyway-by-max-milward>) exhibition at Buckingham Palace and Global Challenge (<http://thegolovine.wordpress.com/2013/01/24/emily-woolley-winner-of-uobs-global-challenge-award-on-how-working-at-museum-victoria-in-melbourne-uneared-some-links-between-birmingham-and-down-under>) award winner Emily Woolley writes about her experience working at Museum Victoria in Melbourne.

There is also a host of exhibition reviews and, coming soon, more about some of the gallery internships our students have taken up.
