

Postgraduate study

Italian Studies at Birmingham is large and long-established, with world-class research. It is part of the Department of Modern Languages \(/schools/lcahm/departments/index.aspx\).

One of the biggest, and most vibrant, postgraduate communities in the UK for Italian Studies.

Supervision and teaching by international scholars with wide-ranging expertise, especially in cultural, political, cinema, and literary studies.

Effective support provided to postgraduate researchers by the Department and University:

PhD progress vivas each year to prepare for the final viva.

A yearly pg symposium with the University of Warwick where pg researchers present their work and get essential feedback. TNA meetings to discuss training needs and give advice on career progression.

- Regular School pg forums (currently organised by members of Italian Studies)
- Individual advice on making funding applications
