

Department of Music receives a 98% satisfaction rating in the National Student Survey

Posted on Friday 11th November 2011

The Department of Music received an overall satisfaction rating of 98% (<http://unistats.direct.gov.uk>) in the latest National Student Survey; a ranking of third amongst the 184 departments offering music-related courses in the country. As well, 98% of students agreed that "Staff are good at explaining things", and 97% that "Staff have made the subject interesting". 90% of graduates were either in a job or pursuing further study at the time of the survey.

