

Undergraduate study in Languages, Cultures, Art History and Music

The School brings together a number of internationally renowned departments to offer an extensive portfolio of innovative and interdisciplinary programmes in an exciting and creative environment, underpinned by a vibrant research culture.

The School includes the following departments: Art History, Film and Visual Studies (</schools/lcahm/departments/historyofart/index.aspx>), Modern Languages (</schools/lcahm/departments/languages/index.aspx>) (Including French Studies, German Studies, Hispanic Studies, Italian Studies, Russian Studies, Mandarin Chinese, Japanese, and Arabic), and Music (</schools/lcahm/departments/music/index.aspx>). Interdisciplinary study and research are a key strength of the School, and there are opportunities to pursue these across a range of cultural, literary, historical and socio-political perspectives.

There is a thriving undergraduate and postgraduate student community, benefiting from world-class facilities such as the Barber Institute of Fine Arts (<http://barber.org.uk/>) and the new state-of-the-art Bramall Music Building, and the advantages that an intellectually stimulating environment offers.
