

Women leading in science and mathematics lectures

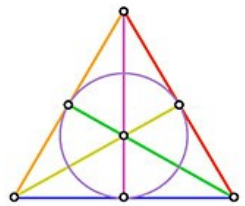

This lecture series will be given by female academics who are leaders in their fields of research. Open to all who are interested in the study of mathematics. Particularly suitable for undergraduate mathematics students. Hosted by the School of Mathematics at the University of Birmingham. All welcome to attend. The lectures are free of charge and will be followed by refreshments.

13th February 2013

Dr Kamila Zychaluk
University of Liverpool
"Statistical model for changes in coral reefs"

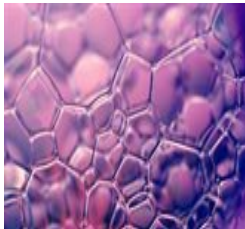

Venue: LRC (Watson Building)
Time: 13:00hrs

27th February 2013

Dr Rebecca Waldecker
Martin Luther Universitat Halle Wittenberg
"Permutation groups"

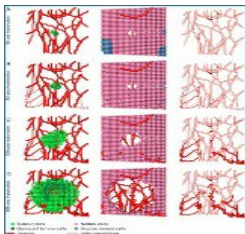

Venue: LRA (Watson Building)
Time: 14:00hrs

6th March 2013

Dr Anne Juel
University of Manchester
"Confining bubbles in small spaces: instabilities and pattern formation on the pore scale"

Venue: LRA (Watson Building)
Time: 14:00hrs

13th March 2013

Professor Helen Byrne
University of Oxford
"Blazing a trail from combustion to cancer: a perspective from a female mathematician"

Venue: LRA (Watson Building)
Time: 13:00hrs

20th March 2013

Dr Rachel Camina
University of Cambridge
"The story of the Nottingham Group - so far"

Venue: LRA (Watson Building)
Time: 14:00hrs