

School of Physics and Astronomy ranked joint 6th in the UK in the ranking of world class universities

Posted on Tuesday 2nd August 2011

The Centre for World-Class Universities held the Third International Conference on World-Class Universities in November 2009. One theme of the conference was Ranking and Classification of World-Class Universities.

Results may be found at arwu.org \(http://www.arwu.org/SubjectPhysics2009.jsp\) showing that the University of Birmingham is joint 6th of the universities from the UK.