

Siti Aminah Omar

Doctoral Researcher

School of Psychology \(/schools/psychology/index.aspx\)

Contact details

Email sao373@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:sao373@bham.ac.uk>)

School of Psychology
University of Birmingham
Edgbaston
Birmingham
B15 2TT
UK

About

Title of PhD: The impact of Traumatic Brain Injury on families in Malaysia

Supervisors: Dr Gerard Anthony Riley \(/staff/profiles/psychology/riley-gerard.aspx\) and Dr Hareth Al-Janabi

Siti Omar is currently undertaking doctoral research on the impact of Traumatic Brain Injury on Families residing in Malaysia. She is interested in developing a multidisciplinary approach in successful care giving.

Qualifications

Master of Clinical Psychology
Bachelor of Human Sciences (Psychology)

Biography

Siti Omar previously studied Psychology at degree level at International Islamic University Malaysia before pursuing a Master of Clinical Psychology in Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (National University). After graduation, she has been appointed as a lecturer at Faculty of Medicine, Universiti Teknologi Mara in Malaysia before pursuing doctoral research in University of Birmingham.

Research

Research interests

Traumatic Brain Injury, Rehabilitation and clinical intervention.