

Student question time with the Archbishop of Canterbury

Dr Rowan Williams, the Archbishop of Canterbury, took part in a short question and answer session with Theology and Religion students as part of the Cadbury Lectures series 2012

The questions were:

Q1: What is your interest in China? Why China and Christianity?

Q2: For you what does it mean to be Church and has it changed significantly over the years?

Q3: Do you see Atheism as a threat to our morality?

Q4: Do you have any advice for students starting their university careers?

Adobe Flash Player or QuickTime is required for video playback. Get the latest Flash Player Get the latest version of QuickTime

- video transcript \(/accessibility/transcripts/artsandlaw/ptr/archbishop-question-time.aspx\)

The Students with the Archbishop and the Cadbury Lectures organiser Edmond Tang

R-L Edmond Tang, Alexander Chow, Dr rowan Williamsn, Alexander Balcombe, Aimee Whittaker