

Clinical governance in New Zealand

Posted on Friday 7th December 2012

HSMC academic Helen Dickinson (</staff/profiles/social-policy/dickinson-helen.aspx>) took part in an event on clinical governance in Wellington, New Zealand on 6 December. Organised by Professor Robin Gauld of Otago University, Helen presented on the English experience alongside the Minister of Health, Tony Ryall.

The meeting was to mark the conclusion of the Clinical Governance Assessment Project and attracted over a 100 representatives from District Health Boards and other health organisations across New Zealand. Helen also appeared on Radio New Zealand speaking on the same topic.

  Survey shows effort needed to encourage health leadership - Radio New Zealand National - Checkpoint

00:00  00:00  