

HSMC latest newsletter is published

Posted on Monday 13th May 2013

HSMC's latest Newsletter (</Documents/college-social-sciences/social-policy/HSMC/publications/Newsletters/newsletter-volume19-no1.pdf>) is now available to download on the website. As well as information on HSMC's research projects, publications and events, it includes the following articles:

- Editorial, 'Focus on making a difference' by Deborah Davidson
- Effective hospital board governance of safe care, by Russell Mannion, Tim Freeman and Ross Millar
- Health and Wellbeing Boards, supporting the development of system leadership, by Catherine Mangan and Robin Miller
- 'Time to care'? - finding ways to help nurses deliver compassionate care, by Yvonne Sawbridge
- Patient and public involvement - the role of the FT governor, by Hilary Brown
- Caring for dying patients and their families in an acute setting, by Tracy Nightingale
- Large scale complex system change, by Kate Schneider

