You will be part of a diverse community located in an inspirational campus setting, with access to the most vibrant, multicultural city in the UK on your doorstep. The world-class facilities, rich cultural assets and wealth of sporting opportunities will support and enhance your learning experience. You will relish your time at Birmingham, and the friendships you make and the experience you share will shape your future.

At Birmingham and in the School of Social Policy we have a long experience of welcoming students from all over the world. Over the years many students have successfully completed their degrees and enjoyed the experience of living and studying in the city of Birmingham before returning to flourishing careers in their home countries whilst retaining their links with us.
