

Sportex graduate, Adam Pengilly, becomes Honorary Graduand

Posted on Thursday 6th December 2012

2000 Sport and Exercise Science graduate Adam Pengilly has competed for Great Britain at Bob Skeleton in two Winter Olympics in 2006 and 2010 and won silver at the 2009 World Championships in Lake Placid. Previously at the 2002 Winter Olympics Adam helped coach the women's GB Bobsleigh team giving him the unlikely honour of coaching at an Olympic games before competing in one. In 2010 he was elected by his fellow Olympians to the International Olympic Committee Athletes' Commission in Vancouver.
