Qualifications

2.1 MEng (hons) in Chemical Engineering

Biography

John graduated from the University of Birmingham with a MEng (Hons) in Chemical Engineering in 2011 before starting work on his PhD in August 2011. John's PhD is funded as a part of the EPSRC Doctoral Training Centre in Hydrogen, Fuel Cells and their applications. John is looking into the degradation mechanisms in Solid Oxide Fuel Cells and accelerated age testing of stacks and cells.

Teaching

John has helped run a number of tutorial classes and lab sessions for undergraduates in the Chemical Engineering department. He has also managed teams for Product design exercise for two years.
