

Linda Caswell

Teaching Fellow in Mathematics

School of Education

Contact details

Telephone +44 (0)121 414 4814 (tel: +44 121 414 4814)

Email l.r.caswell@bham.ac.uk (mailto:l.r.caswell@bham.ac.uk)

School of Education
University of Birmingham
Edgbaston, Birmingham
B15 2TT, United Kingdom

About

Linda Caswell has taught mathematics for many years in the West Midlands area. She was Head of Mathematics for 15 years in three different schools and so has firsthand knowledge and experience of the changes to both mathematics teaching and Initial Teacher Education. Linda first worked in the School of Education in 2008 and has taught on the PGDipEd (QTS) course on a part time basis before moving to a full time commitment in 2011. She completed her Master of Philosophy in 2006 researching the effect of co-operative tasks in the mathematics classroom.

Qualifications

- MPhil, University of Birmingham, 2006
- PGCE, Wolverhampton University
- BSc Hons, University of Birmingham

Teaching

Linda teaches on the PGDipEd Secondary Mathematics (</postgraduate/courses/taught/edu/pgce-secondary-mathematics.aspx>) course and the Secondary Mathematics Subject Knowledge Enhancement (SKE) (</postgraduate/courses/taught/edu/secondary-mathematics-ske.aspx>) course.