About

As a tutor with the Birmingham Foundation Academy team, I guide international students toward entry into undergraduate study, particularly in the development of Academic English style and a range of language-related study skills. I have also worked on pre-sessional programmes for postgraduates, in-session, 1-2-1 and intensive courses, general and subject-specific.

Qualifications

- MA Language in Education (Open University)
- BA (Hons) Linguistics (University of York)
- Advanced Certificate in TEFL (University of Leicester)
- PGCE EFL/Modern Languages (Birmingham Polytechnic)

Biography

I have wide-ranging experience in teaching English (and other languages), in the UK and abroad, including working in schools, colleges, universities and other educational settings as a manager, coordinator, teacher and tutor.

My special professional interests lie in error analysis, academic style, vocabulary development and English for Specific Academic Purposes.

Teaching

- BFA English and Study Skills Module
- EAP Postgraduate Pre-sessional
- EAP Undergraduate Pre-sessional
