About

In her role as E-Learning Manager for the School of Social Policy Dee is keen to capitalise on her experience and interest in creating resources for teaching and learning with a focus on enquiry based blended learning design.

Between 2005 and October 2010 Dee was a member of the multimedia team at the Centre of Excellence in Interdisciplinary Mental Health. This role incorporated a remit to create resources using Apple accredited skills with Final Cut Pro and DVD Studio Pro. She was also responsible for teaching academics and students to develop skills to create and publish video based teaching and learning materials. Dee became a Certified Member of the Association for Learning Technology (ALT) in October 2009.
