

Becoming a supplier

The University has an extensive list of approved suppliers and associated Framework Agreements. We also provide useful information on how you can express your interest in a tender and become an approved supplier.

Tenders

Suppliers wishing to view a list of current tenders, or to express interest in a particular tender or quotation should refer to the In-Tend website (<https://in-tendhost.co.uk/universityofbirmingham/asp/home.asp>).

The following documents are to be used when responding to a tender posted in the Universities In-Tend system. The appropriate document to use, in each case, will be clearly identified within the In-Tend system.

- Relevant experience and project history \(Word Doc - 54KB\) \(/Documents/finance/relevant-exp.doc\)
- Non compliance document \(Word Doc - 52KB\) \(/Documents/finance/non-compliance.doc\)

Useful information

Online resources

Procureweb is an information hub supporting procurement within the Higher Education Sector and Research Councils. Their website provides an overview and details of procurement activities across the whole Higher Education Sector. See the Procureweb website \(http://www.procureweb.ac.uk\).

PDF Resources

There are lots of resources available to you to raise your awareness of procurement activities, and opportunities for you to compete for business with the University and other Public Sector organisations. The following documents may be useful:

- Introduction to procurement at the University \(PDF – 32KB\) \(/Documents/finance/uni-procurement.pdf\)
- How does procurement operate? \(PDF – 25KB\) \(/Documents/finance/how-procurement.pdf\)
- Current Framework Register (PDF – 72KB)
