

Apply online

Applications for 2015/16 academic year are now open. Please note there has been a recent change to the process of accommodation allocations for 2015/16, removing the 'first come-first served' allocation ordering system, replacing it with a random and more equal process. Further details and an explanation for the rationale for this change can be found on our allocating accommodation \(/undergraduate/accommodation/Apply-for-accommodation/allocation.aspx\) page.

Please apply online. (<https://studentaccommodation.bham.ac.uk/StarRezPortal/Default.aspx>) Please ensure you apply for the correct year and student type to ensure your application is processed correctly.

Applications for accommodation for academic year 2014/15 remain open.

Students requiring accommodation for January 2015 can apply now and (subject to availability) will receive an offer of accommodation by 12th December 2014.

Gap year students

If you're taking a gap year with an unconditional offer from Birmingham and have previously applied for accommodation, your initial application will no longer be valid for the 2015/2016 academic year. So you'll need to re-submit your application after December 1st 2014.

Remember...

If you apply for accommodation before the deadline, your accommodation will usually be allocated during July & August.

If you're a late applicant or are outside the guarantee scheme we can't guarantee you accommodation but we will do our best to assist you. Where we have vacancies we will offer these rooms and if we do not have accommodation within our own stock we will advise on suitable alternative options.
