University of Birmingham Careers and Admissions Conference – Wednesday 22 April 2015.

This will take place at the University on Wednesday 22 April 2015. This popular event keeps teachers and careers advisers working with sixth form students updated on developments in Higher Education. It also provides the opportunity to find out more about courses offered at the University of Birmingham.

University of Birmingham and the University of Nottingham Collaborative Conferences for Teachers and Advisers

We organise Conferences for teachers and advisers jointly with The University of Nottingham in Manchester and London. The programmes include a range of speakers and panellists from both universities giving delegates the opportunity to be updated by key admissions staff including specialist workshops and a question and answer session with admissions tutors. These Conferences give delegates an opportunity to get advice about entry to competitive courses at two of the Midlands largest universities.

Manchester Conference for Advisers and Teachers - Thursday 26 February 2015

This will be the third annual Manchester Conference providing an ideal opportunity for teachers and careers advisers located in the North to get the latest admissions information from the University of Birmingham and The University of Nottingham.

It will take place on Thursday 26 February 2015 at the Mechanics Institute, Manchester City Centre. The venue was the birthplace of the TUC, UMIST and the Co-Operative Insurance Society, and is a Grade II listed building.

A draft copy of the programme for the day is available here:
