

Conferences and events

University of Birmingham Careers and Admissions Conference

This popular event keeps teachers and careers advisers working with sixth form students updated on admissions and applying for competitive courses. It also provides the opportunity to find out more about courses offered at the University of Birmingham.

The next Careers and Admissions Conference will take place at the University on Thursday 21 April 2016 and the programme and booking form will be available here when finalised.

University of Birmingham and the University of Nottingham Collaborative Conferences for Teachers and Advisers

We organise Conferences for teachers and careers advisers jointly with The University of Nottingham in Manchester and London. The programmes include a range of speakers from both universities giving delegates the opportunity to be updated by key admissions staff. These Conferences give delegates an opportunity to get advice about entry to courses at two of the Midlands largest universities.

Manchester Conference for Advisers and Teachers – Thursday 25 February 2016

The annual Manchester Conference provides an ideal opportunity for teachers and careers advisers located in the North to get the latest admissions information from the University of Birmingham and The University of Nottingham.

The next Conference will take place on Thursday 25 February 2016 and details will be available here when the programme has been finalised.

London Careers Advisers and Teachers Conference – Wednesday 11 May 2016

The next London Careers Advisers' and Teachers' Conference will take place on Wednesday 11 May 2016 and details will be available here when the programme is finalised.

All of these conferences are free of charge to attend and include lunch and refreshments. For further information about these Conferences please contact Katherine Pagett, email k.a.pagett@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:k.a.pagett@bham.ac.uk>), telephone 0121 414 3501.