

Undergraduate Open Days

The University is pleased to invite your staff and students to our annual open day on Friday 26 June 2015.

This is an excellent opportunity to explore the campus and experience university life first-hand. All departments providing undergraduate courses will hold displays and most will offer subject-based talks. Current students and members of academic staff will be available to discuss courses and advise on admissions and entry requirements.

Talks of general interest taking place will include topics such as 'tips for applicants', 'student life' and 'student finance'. In addition, we will once again be running a 'Teachers' Forum' designed to provide you with information about student admissions and new developments in higher education.

We are now at capacity for coach drop off and pick up at the University, therefore any future group bookings will be unable to travel by coach to the university.

As the University has its own train station, the easiest way to reach the University is by train and we would recommend this means of travel to visit our open days. The train link to Birmingham New Street station links you to a number of city centre car/coach parks.

Once you have requested an open day booking, confirmation will be sent to you, followed by an information pack. This will contain a copy of the printed programme to help you plan your day.
