

Masterclasses

Teacher, 'Why do we eat what we eat?' masterclass "The talk was very informative and the students who I accompanied all found it very inspiring"

- Are you a teacher in a state school or college?
- Are you looking for opportunities to raise the aspirations and attainment of your widening participation cohort?
- Are you looking for opportunities to stretch your Gifted and Talented students?
- Do you want to ease your learners' transition between sixth form and university level learning?
- Do you want your sixth form learners to experience a subject that they could potentially apply to study at university?

Wednesday Masterclasses

If so then the University of Birmingham Wednesday Masterclasses have something for you. Classes are designed to stimulate enquiry and broaden knowledge of the subject area covered.

We run over 50 sessions per year; some relate closely to the school curriculum; others are broader and introduce new topics found in higher education study. It will give your students the opportunity to take part in a learning experience within a higher education setting.

Please note that whilst there is no charge for masterclass places, terms and conditions do apply - please refer to the online brochure for full terms and conditions. For further information please email masterclass@contacts.bham.ac.uk (<mailto:masterclass@contacts.bham.ac.uk>)
