

Preparing you for your career

Your Birmingham experience will prepare you for life as an active member of a global society by transforming your prospects in a competitive employment market. From the outset, we provide opportunities for mentoring support from our outstanding graduates, career skills and development, community volunteering and leadership skills. To find out more about how we can support you in your chosen career, please visit our Careers page \(/undergraduate/careers/index.aspx\).