

Business Organisation and Management

This module involves:

- The structure of organisations
- Change and innovation
- Functional processes
- Case studies of organisational response to change.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of this module the student will be able to understand current thinking and practice in the management of business organisations.

Assessment

2 hr written examination (75%)

Group Coursework: 3000 words + 250 Word statement on how the group worked (25%)