

Aspects of the Gothic

- Wednesday 11 December 2013
- From 11:00 to 17:00

This Study Day, hosted by the Department of English, will consist of plenary sessions and workshops considering general aspects of the Gothic, plus text-specific sessions that will look at individual works (e.g., Macbeth, The Castle of Otranto, Frankenstein, Beloved, the Bloody Chamber) in more detail. The cost will be £10 per student, teachers free.

We would be interested in hearing from schools on what their specific needs are before finalising the programme: please email h.murray@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:h.murray@bham.ac.uk>).
