

Recent research grants in Engineering and Physical Sciences

Posted on Friday 30th May 2014

Significant recent awards in the College include:

- Professor Liam Grover (</staff/profiles/chemical-engineering/grover-liam.aspx>), School of Chemical Engineering, was awarded £534,061 from the Engineering and Physical Science Research Council for 'Novel Implant Design and Manufacture with Embedded Therapeutics'.
- Professor Paul Bowen (</staff/profiles/metallurgy/bowen-paul.aspx>), School of Metallurgy and Materials, was awarded £107,000 from Rolls Royce for Friction Welding of Aerospace Alloys - Behavioural Studies (Titanium).
- Professor Bowen (</staff/profiles/metallurgy/bowen-paul.aspx>) was also awarded £109,500 from Rolls Royce for UTP Core PhD Studentship 2008-2014 and a further £216,000 from Rolls Royce for Casting Partnership: Maintenance and Upkeep of Single Shot Casting Furnace

