

Audio research

"Putin and the Russian economy"

"Sharing photographs on Facebook could damage relationships"

Dr David Houghton \(/staff/profiles/business/houghton-david.aspx\)

Sharing photographs on Facebook could damage relationships with friends, family and colleagues and the quantity and subject matter of the pictures have an impact on the level of support and intimacy within relationships. Read the report in full \(http://epapers.bham.ac.uk/1723/1/2013-03_D_Houghton.pdf\).

"National and foreign ownership"

Professor Simon Collinson \(/staff/profiles/business/collinson-simon.aspx\)

Dean of Birmingham Business School, Professor Simon Collinson discusses national and foreign ownership for 'Your Network', Birmingham Business School's annual alumni magazine.

"UK horsemeat scandal and the challenges of global supply chains"

Dr Pamela Robinson \(/staff/profiles/business/robinson-pamela.aspx\)

Dr Pamela Robinson gives her expert views on the recent UK horsemeat scandal and the challenges of global supply chains for 'Your Network', Birmingham Business School's annual alumni magazine.

"Leadership and enterprise development"

Professor Kiran Trehan \(/staff/profiles/business/trehan-kiran.aspx\)

Professor of Leadership and Enterprise Development, Kiran Trehan, discusses the role mentoring can play in developing small and medium sized enterprises.

