Blog: Getting to Grips with Public Interest Companies \(<http://inlogov.com/2015/02/23/getting-to-grips-with-public-interest-companies/>\)

Written by Ian Briggs. The recent announcement by Northamptonshire County Council heralding a move towards a 'next generation model' where four public interest companies are to be established to deliver front line services and leaving a core client organisation of around 150 employees adds to the growing number of councils (and other parts of the public sector) who are seeking to adopt this model. What is interesting here is that is goes far beyond the tired rhetoric of what is best, direct public provision or privatisation?
