

Facts and statistics

Figures alone cannot capture the experience of learning and living at the University – neither can they completely communicate the many elements that make Birmingham one of the most popular UK universities. What they can do is provide a useful profile of what take place in this prestigious institution.

This section offers you a quick reference guide to our performance in league tables and in other national and international rankings, demonstrating our commitment to excellence in all that we do.