

Health and Safety

The University of Birmingham is committed to providing and maintaining a healthy and safe working environment for all its employees, students and any other people who may be affected by its activities.

The Health and Safety Unit has scientific and technical expertise provided by professionally qualified advisers. Their role is to assist the University in the development and implementation of the University Health and Safety Policy and to provide expert advice.

The Unit works closely with other departments in the University, in particular Occupational Health, and with external agencies.
