

Hannah England

School of Biosciences alumna Hannah England has won silver medal in the women's 1,500 metres IAAF World Championships. The Biochemistry graduate, who was awarded a first class degree in 2009 is still actively involved with the Sport Scholarship scheme and is a proud advocate of the University.